

THE EPISTLE.

much as will make you thinke your testerne well bestowed but for so much worth, as euen poore I know to be stuf in it. It deserues such a labour, as well as the best Commedy in Terence or Plautus. And beleue this, that when hee is gone, and his Commedies out of sale, you will scramble for them, and set up a new English Inquisition. Take this for a warning, and at the perill of your pleasures losse, and iudgements, refuse not, nor like this the lesse, for not being sullied, with the smoky breath of the multitude; but thanke fortune for the scape it hath made amongst you. Since by the grand possessors wills I beleue you should haue prayd for them rather then beene prayd. And so I leaue all such to bee prayd for (for the states of their wits healths)

Troy. Still haue I tarried.

Pan. I, to the leauening, but heares yet in the word here-

Troy. Pacience her selfe, what Godesse ere she be,
Doth lesse blench at suffrance then I do:

At Priams royall table do I sit
And when faire Cressida comes into my thoughts,
